Date of the programme: 14.10.2023

Number of participants: 150

PRIST NSS Cell jointly organized with District Social Welfare Office and Ministry of Women and Child Development to create awareness among the College students about all the citizens of India have right to live quality life. Bharatiya Stree Shakti strives for gender equality and women empowerment so that women could live in peace and harmony in Indian society. The infamous “Nirbhaya” case generated widespread outrage and was widely condemned in India and abroad. The Ministry of Women and Child Development (MWCD), Government of India, investigated the impact of changed policies and laws. The research project “Tackling Violence against Women: A Study of State Intervention Measures” aimed at documenting the changes in registration of the cases of violence against women after the policy level changes and to compare the national scenario related to the violence against women. The guest lectures were delivered by Mrs. M. Vimala, District Social Welfare Officer, Mrs. A. Julia, Field Officer, Mrs. N. Elamathi MWCD coordinator. A total of 150 girls students had participated in the programme.
