SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

About the softskill development:

Soft skill development is an essential aspect of personal and professional growth. Unlike technical skills, which are specific to a particular job or industry, soft skills are interpersonal and broadly applicable abilities that enhance how individuals interact with others and manage themselves. These skills are critical for effective communication, collaboration, and leadership, and they play a vital role in career success and personal fulfillment.

Methods for Developing Soft Skills

1. Training Programs and Workshops:

- Participating in workshops and training sessions focused on specific soft skills, led by experts or facilitators.

2. Mentoring and Coaching:

- Engaging in one-on-one mentoring or coaching relationships to receive personalized guidance and feedback on soft skill development.

3. Real-Life Practice:

- Applying soft skills in real-world situations, such as in team projects, volunteer work, or professional roles, to gain practical experience.

4. Self-Assessment and Reflection:

- Regularly evaluating one's own skills, seeking feedback from others, and reflecting on experiences to identify areas for improvement.

5. Online Courses and Resources:

- Utilizing online courses, webinars, and resources to learn and practice soft skills at one's own pace.

Importance of Soft Skill Development

Developing soft skills is crucial for several reasons:

- Enhanced Career Opportunities: Soft skills are often a key differentiator in job performance and can impact career advancement and job satisfaction.

- Improved Work Relationships: Strong interpersonal skills contribute to better collaboration, reduced conflicts, and more effective teamwork.
- Increased Adaptability: Soft skills such as problem-solving and emotional intelligence enable individuals to navigate changes and challenges more effectively.
- Leadership and Influence: Effective leaders rely heavily on soft skills to motivate, guide, and support their teams.

Overall, investing in soft skill development can lead to more successful interactions, better career prospects, and a more fulfilling professional and personal life.

TECHNICAL GENERAL APTITUDE AND SKILL DEVELOPMENT

The training is an extension of the third year to exercise the brain and getting ready for technical skills. A practical exposure is given to realize the importance of skillets. Students are exposed to face their fears and uncomfortable situations like public speaking, Job interview, team building etc

MOCKTEST AND INTERVIEW

Exclusive pre placement training – both general and technical aptitude is carried out by external firms, corporate professionals for final years with a focus on corporate selection process during the campus hiring visit

About the softskill development:

Soft skill development is an essential aspect of personal and professional growth. Unlike technical skills, which are specific to a particular job or industry, soft skills are interpersonal and broadly applicable abilities that enhance how individuals interact with others and manage themselves. These skills are critical for effective communication, collaboration, and leadership, and they play a vital role in career success and personal fulfillment.

Key Areas of Soft Skill Development

1. Communication Skills:

- Verbal Communication: Improving the ability to articulate ideas clearly and confidently in various settings, from one-on-one conversations to group discussions and public speaking.
- Non-Verbal Communication: Understanding and effectively using body language, facial expressions, and tone of voice to complement and enhance verbal messages.
- Active Listening: Developing the skill of listening attentively and empathetically, asking clarifying questions, and providing thoughtful responses.

2. Interpersonal Skills:

- Empathy: Cultivating the ability to understand and share the feelings of others, which helps in building strong relationships and managing conflicts.
- Teamwork: Learning to work collaboratively with others, contributing effectively to group projects, and valuing diverse perspectives.
- Networking: Building and maintaining professional relationships through effective networking strategies and social skills.

3. Emotional Intelligence:

- Self-Awareness: Gaining insight into one's own emotions, strengths, and weaknesses, and understanding how they affect behavior and decision-making.
- Self-Regulation: Developing the ability to manage and control one's emotions, particularly in stressful or challenging situations.
- Motivation: Enhancing intrinsic motivation and resilience to pursue goals, overcome obstacles, and maintain a positive attitude.

4. Problem-Solving and Critical Thinking:

- Analytical Skills: Strengthening the ability to analyze situations, identify problems, and think through potential solutions systematically.
- Decision-Making: Developing sound judgment and the ability to make well-informed decisions based on available information and considerations.
- Creativity: Encouraging innovative thinking and finding creative solutions to complex problems.

5. Leadership and Management:

- Delegation: Learning to assign tasks effectively, trust team members, and manage workloads to achieve optimal results.
- Conflict Resolution: Acquiring techniques to address and resolve conflicts constructively, facilitating positive outcomes for all parties involved.
- Inspiration and Influence: Developing the ability to motivate and inspire others, foster a collaborative environment, and lead by example.

6. Time Management and Organization:

- Prioritization: Enhancing the ability to prioritize tasks effectively, set clear goals, and manage time to achieve objectives efficiently.
- Planning: Developing organizational skills for creating detailed plans, schedules, and to-do lists to stay on track and meet deadlines.
- Stress Management: Learning techniques to manage stress and maintain work-life balance, ensuring productivity without burnout.

TECHNICAL GENERAL APTITUDE AND SKILL DEVELOPMENT

The training is an extension of the first year with assignments and tasks given based on individual topics. A practical exposure is given to realize the importance of skillets. #### ABOUT SOFT SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Soft skills training is training that focuses on the development of abilities such as communication, teamwork and problem solving as opposed to hard skills which focus on an employee's technical ability. Other soft skills include emotional intelligence, a positive attitude and taking the initiative.

Skill development is the process of improving specific skills to be more efficient and effective when you perform a task. In the workplace, you'll find three main types of skill development: Upskilling: Improving your skills in your current role. Cross-skilling: Learn new skills for your current

Soft skills are essential for success in the workplace, both for employees and employers. They are the social abilities that enable us to interact effectively with others, and they play a vital role in our ability to communicate, collaborate, and solve problems.

OBJECTIVES:-

Skillsoft helps every individual reach their full potential through access to learning – leading to a future-fit, sustainable workforce. In 2023, we made progress toward this promise. Assessed our global energy usage to establish a science-based target for reducing future greenhouse gas emissions.

Examples of soft skills include communication, teamwork, adaptability, problem-solving, leadership, emotional intelligence and time management. Both hard skills and soft skills are important in the workplace, and possessing a mix of both can increase an individual's chances of success in their career

TECHNICAL TRAINING

ABOUT SOFT SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Soft skills training is training that focuses on the development of abilities such as communication, teamwork and problem solving as opposed to hard skills which focus on an employee's technical ability. Other soft skills include emotional intelligence, a positive attitude and taking the initiative.

Skill development is the process of improving specific skills to be more efficient and effective when you perform a task. In the workplace, you'll find three main types of skill development: Upskilling: Improving your skills in your current role. Cross-skilling: Learn new skills for your current

7 essential soft skills in demand

- Teamwork. With effective teamwork, teams are more productive, deadlines are met, relationships with your team members are stronger and knowledge is shared. ...
- Problem solving. ...
- Communication. ...
- Adaptability. ...
- Critical thinking. ...
- Time management. ...
- Interpersonal.

OBJECTIVES:-

- To develop and train the students to learn the soft skill and face the corporate world and have a successful professional career.
- To develop soft skills and communication ability to challenge their competitive tests and on-job-training in add-on or vocational courses
- To arrange for various technical and career guidance related seminar/workshop to help student to improve their technical knowledge and to let them decide on career path.

TECHNICAL TRAINING

The objective of the training provided to the third year students is to exercise the student's brain and prepare them for technical skill. Some Basic software exposure is provide to them during this period. Exclusive Pre-Placement Training – both General Aptitude and Technical Aptitude is carried out by External Training firms, Corporate Professionals for final year students.- with a focus on the Corporate Selection Process during the Campus Hiring Visit.

Date: 07.12.2018

Department of Mathematics organized Personality Development Programme titled 'Reflective Practice in Personal and Professional Development' on 07.12.2018. The programme began with the invocation followed by the welcome address by Dr. S. Subramaniam Head of Department of Mathematics. Dr. Lakshmi, Professor of Mathematics, Kundavai Nachiar Arts & Science college for Women, Thanjavur was the resource person. She discussed with the students that Reflective practice is one of the essential techniques for personal growth, it refers to self-examination and introspection into one's actions, and decisions after the event have occurred in order to gain a deeper understanding of the potential for future improvements.

Every Student gave good response to this interactive session. The programme ended with the vote of thanks delivered by Dr. D.R. Kirubakaran Assistant professor of Mathematics.
