ANNUAL REPORT OF ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023

According to the policy, Anti-Ragging committee meetings are scheduled twice a year. However, if grievances are received in the interim, an immediate meeting will be convened with the committee members. The dates of the Anti-Ragging committee meetings held are as follows:

S.No	Date of the Meeting
1	08.09.2022
2	20.01.2023

- During the introductory session, Dr. L. Chinnappa, Chair of the Anti-Ragging Committee, outlined the responsibilities of each committee member in addressing ragging complaints within the institution. The committee's purpose was clarified, emphasizing the importance of creating a safe and welcoming environment for students.
- Anti-Ragging signs and signage have been put up at strategic places throughout the campus, such as the canteens, restrooms, cafeteria, and hallways leading to classrooms. Surveillance personnel carried out apprehensions by surprise in a number of university campus locations, such as dorms and buses. During these inspections, there were no reports of ragging. The committee confirmed that all students and parents have completed the anti-ragging affidavit.
- An awareness program on anti-ragging was organized on December 12, 2022.
- The details of grievances raised during this academic year are as follows:

Committee	Grievances Raised	Grievances Resolved	Grievances Yet to be Resolved
Anti Ragging Committee	0	Nil, as no grievances were raised during this academic year.	0

As a result of a rigorous vigilance system and awareness program, there were no reported grievances during this academic year.
