ANNUAL REPORT OF ICC COMMITTEE FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2018-2019

- ❖ Meetings are scheduled tri-monthly in accordance with policy. Should any grievances arise between these scheduled meetings, an immediate meeting with the committee members will be convened. Below are the dates of the ICC/POSH committee meetings that have occurred to date:

S.No	Date of the Meeting
1	06.02.2019
2	28.08.2018

- ❖ In the initial meeting, Dr.A.Sohna Chandra Packiyavathy Convener of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) or Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Committee, provided a thorough overview of the committee's responsibilities. She detailed the roles of each member in handling complaints related to harassment and discrimination within the institution. The meeting also underscored the committee's mission, emphasizing the importance of creating and maintaining a safe and inclusive environment for both students and staff.
- ❖ To support this mission, a confidential complaint form has been introduced. This form is designed to protect the personal details of complainants, ensuring their privacy throughout the reporting process. It is a vital tool for safeguarding the identities of individuals who come forward with complaints.
- ❖ Signage listing the ICC committee members has been strategically placed at key locations throughout the university campus. This visibility ensures that students and staff are aware of whom to contact if they have concerns.

- ❖ Additionally, the handbook on workplace sexual harassment is now available on the university's Women's Development Cell website. This resource provides essential guidance for understanding and addressing issues related to workplace harassment.
- ❖ During the 2018-2019 academic year, the ICC committee, in collaboration with the Women's Development Cell, organized several awareness programs. These initiatives were designed to educate the university community about harassment and discrimination, reinforcing the committee's commitment to maintaining a safe and respectful environment for everyone.
