Report On Women Empowerment

On 5th June 2023, Ponnaiyah Ramajayam Institute of Science and Technology (PRIST) Deemed to be University organized a significant Women Empowerment Programme in collaboration with Technion University. This event, held at the C Block Seminar Hall, was a step towards empowering women by providing them with insights and guidance on global career opportunities.

The event commenced with a special address by our esteemed Vice Chancellor, Dr. T.V. Christy, whose speech set a powerful tone for the day. Dr. T.V. Christy emphasized the importance of women's empowerment in today's world, highlighting the crucial role that educational institutions play in fostering an environment where women can thrive. He acknowledged the challenges women face in various sectors and encouraged them to seize opportunities for growth and leadership.

Following the Vice Chancellor's inspiring speech, the spotlight shifted to Ms. Ramya Raman from Technion University, who conducted an insightful workshop on "Worldwide Career Opportunities for Women." Ms. Ramya Raman, a well-respected figure in her field, shared her extensive knowledge and experience, shedding light on the diverse career paths available to women globally. Her workshop was not only informative but also motivational, as she discussed various strategies women can employ to overcome barriers and succeed in their chosen careers.

The workshop covered a wide range of topics, including the importance of networking, continuous learning, and the need to stay adaptable in a rapidly changing world. Ms. Ramya Raman also addressed the significance of cultural sensitivity and the ability to navigate different work environments, which are critical for women aspiring to build international careers. She provided practical tips on how to leverage educational backgrounds, skill sets, and personal strengths to secure opportunities in various industries around the world.

The event was meticulously coordinated by a team of dedicated faculty members, including Mrs. Mangaleshwari V., the Coordinator of the School of Engineering and Technology, and Mrs. Sathya, the Coordinator of the School of Commerce and Management. Their efforts were instrumental in ensuring the smooth execution of the programme. Additionally, Dr. A. Usha, the Dean of Student Affairs, played a key role in organizing the event, alongside Dr. Jayshree, the Coordinator of the School of Arts and Science, Mrs. Subhashini, the Coordinator of the School of Education, and Ms. R. Ponmathi, the Coordinator of the School of Agriculture.

Each of these coordinators contributed their expertise and leadership to the event, ensuring that all logistical and organizational aspects were handled efficiently. Their collaboration exemplifies the university's commitment to providing holistic support for its students and faculty.

The Women Empowerment Programme was a resounding success, with participants leaving the event feeling inspired and empowered. It provided a platform for women to explore their potential and consider new career possibilities on a global scale. The event also reinforced the importance of such initiatives in promoting gender equality and creating opportunities for women to excel in their professional lives. PRIST Deemed to be University, in partnership with Technion University, has once again demonstrated its dedication to advancing women's roles in society through education and empowerment.

SEMINAR ON LEGAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN

On December 13, 2021, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM, PRIST Block Seminar Hall hosted a pivotal Seminar on Legal Rights for Women. The event featured a distinguished Lawyer (Mrs.R.Kalaiselvi) as the key resource person, providing an in-depth exploration of women's legal rights and protections.

The seminar was designed to educate attendees about the various legal frameworks and protections available to women in our society. The Lawyer's presentation covered a range of topics including domestic violence laws, sexual harassment policies, employment rights, and the legal avenues available for addressing gender-based discrimination. She also provided a detailed overview of recent legal reforms aimed at enhancing women's safety and rights.

Participants were engaged through detailed explanations and real-life case studies that highlighted the practical application of legal rights. The session included a dynamic Q&A segment, where attendees had the opportunity to seek advice on specific issues and gain clarity on legal procedures.

The seminar emphasized the importance of understanding and utilizing legal protections to ensure safety and equality. By equipping attendees with knowledge about their legal rights, the event aimed to empower women to assert their rights confidently and seek justice when necessary. The workshop concluded with a call to action for continued advocacy and education on women's legal issues, underscoring the collective effort required to achieve gender equality.

TALK ON "WOMEN PROTECTION AND LAW" FOR GIRL STUDENTS AND

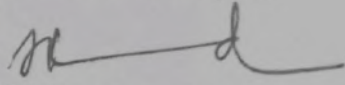

LADY STAFF

On March 29, 2019, an enlightening talk on "Women Protection and Law" was held in the PRIST Seminar Hall from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM. The event was specifically organized for girl students and lady staff to raise awareness about the legal protections available to women and how they can effectively utilize these laws to safeguard their rights. The resource person for the session was a respected lawyer (Mrs. R. Kalaiselvi) with significant expertise in women's legal issues.

The session began with an introduction to the various laws enacted to protect women in India, including those related to domestic violence, sexual harassment, and workplace rights. The lawyer emphasized the importance of being aware of these laws and understanding how they can be applied to real-life situations. She highlighted key provisions of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005, the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, and other relevant legislation.

The talk also covered the legal procedures for reporting incidents of harassment or violence, the role of the police, and the judicial process. The lawyer provided practical advice on how to approach authorities, document incidents, and ensure that legal actions are taken swiftly and effectively.

Legal Rights for Women Webinar Report

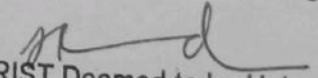

On January 12, 2019, a highly informative webinar on "Legal Rights for Women" was held in the PRIST Seminar Hall from 10:30 AM to 11:30 AM. The session aimed to educate women about their legal rights and empower them with knowledge to protect and assert these rights. The resource person for the event was Mr. Thiyagarajan, a seasoned lawyer with extensive experience in women's legal issues.

Mr. Thiyagarajan began the session by outlining the fundamental legal rights that women are entitled to under the Indian Constitution, including the right to equality, protection against discrimination, and the right to safety and dignity. He emphasized the significance of these rights in promoting gender equality and ensuring that women can lead lives free from oppression and injustice.

The webinar covered a wide range of topics, including laws related to domestic violence, sexual harassment, property rights, and workplace rights. Mr. Thiyagarajan provided a detailed explanation of the legal recourse available to women in cases of rights violations, highlighting the importance of being aware of these options to seek justice effectively.

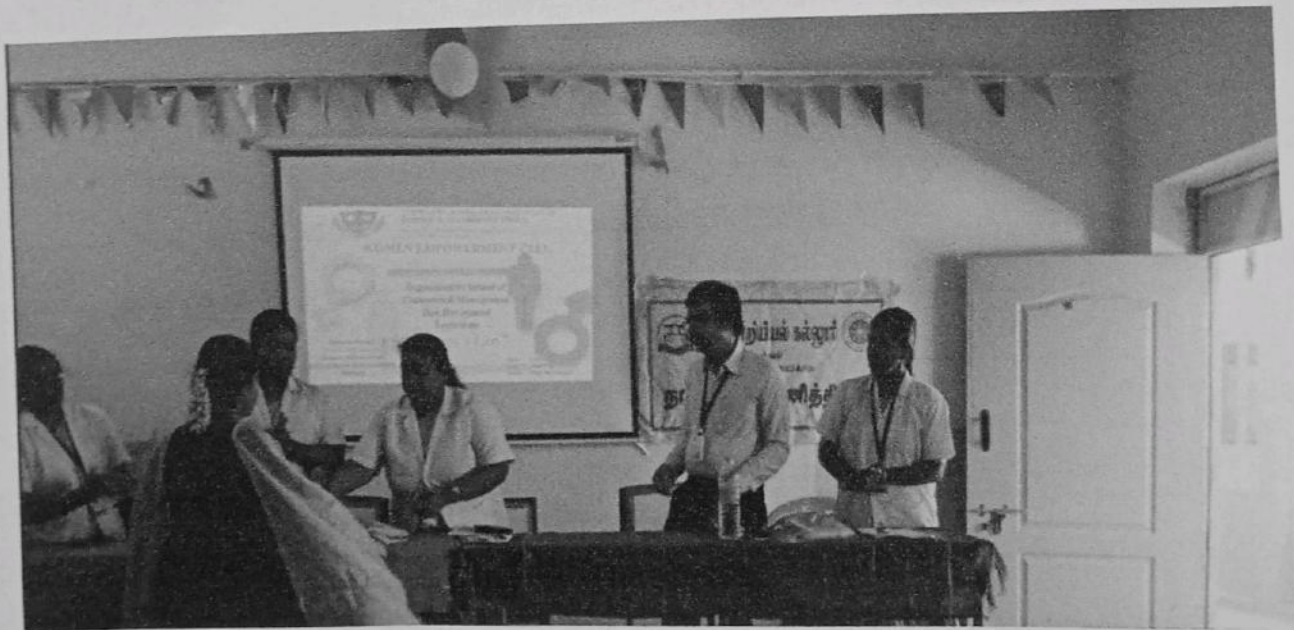

Real-life case studies were presented to illustrate the practical application of these laws, helping participants understand how to navigate the legal system. Mr. Thiyagarajan also discussed the role of legal aid services and how women can access support if they cannot afford legal representation.
