ALUMNI MEETING REPORT

Date: December 18, 2018

Time: 10:00 A.M.

Venue: PRIST Block Seminar Hall

The alumni meeting held on December 18, 2018, at 10:00 A.M. in the PRIST Block Seminar Hall was a grand and momentous occasion. The event was attended by alumni from various batches, who gathered to reconnect with their peers and their alma mater. The meeting was graced by the presence of the Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, and Registrar, who each delivered a special address, making the event even more significant.

The program began with a warm welcome by the organizing committee, followed by an inaugural address by the Chancellor. In his speech, the Chancellor expressed his deep appreciation for the alumni, acknowledging their achievements and contributions to society. He emphasized the critical role that alumni play in the growth and development of the institution and encouraged them to continue to support their alma mater in its endeavors.

Following the Chancellor's address, the Vice Chancellor took the stage. His speech focused on the advancements made by the institution in recent years, including the expansion of academic programs, research initiatives, and infrastructure development. He highlighted the institution's commitment to excellence and how the alumni's success stories serve as an inspiration to current students and faculty alike. The Vice Chancellor also invited the alumni to actively participate in mentorship programs, guest lectures, and other initiatives that could benefit the current students.

The Registrar delivered the final special address, where he discussed the importance of maintaining strong alumni networks. He shared plans to strengthen the alumni association and enhance communication channels between the institution and its former students. The Registrar also talked about the upcoming events and projects where alumni could contribute, fostering a sense of belonging and continuity.

The alumni meeting provided a platform for the alumni to share their experiences and professional journeys. Many alumni expressed their gratitude towards the institution for laying the foundation for their successful careers. They also discussed ways to give back to the institution, including establishing scholarships and providing internship opportunities for current students.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Head of the Alumni Association, followed by a networking session over refreshments. The event was a resounding success, strengthening the bond between the institution and its alumni, and setting the stage for future collaborations.
