ALUMNI MEETING REPORT

Date: December 31, 2020

Time: 10:00 A.M.

Venue: Online Mode via MS Teams

The alumni meeting held on December 31, 2020, at 10:00 A.M., was a unique and significant event as it took place through an online platform, MS Teams, due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Despite the challenges posed by the pandemic, the event saw enthusiastic participation from alumni across different batches, demonstrating the strong bond they share with their alma mater.

The meeting began with a warm virtual welcome by the organizing committee, followed by an address from the Registrar. He expressed his delight at the large turnout and highlighted the institution's efforts to adapt to the new normal. The Registrar also provided updates on how the institution has been managing the challenges brought about by the pandemic, including the shift to online education and the implementation of various health and safety protocols on campus.

A key part of the meeting was a discussion on COVID-19 prevention measures. Alumni from the medical and healthcare sectors shared their expertise on the importance of adhering to safety guidelines, such as wearing masks, maintaining social distance, and frequent hand washing. They also discussed the impact of the pandemic on their professional lives and how they have been contributing to the fight against COVID-19.

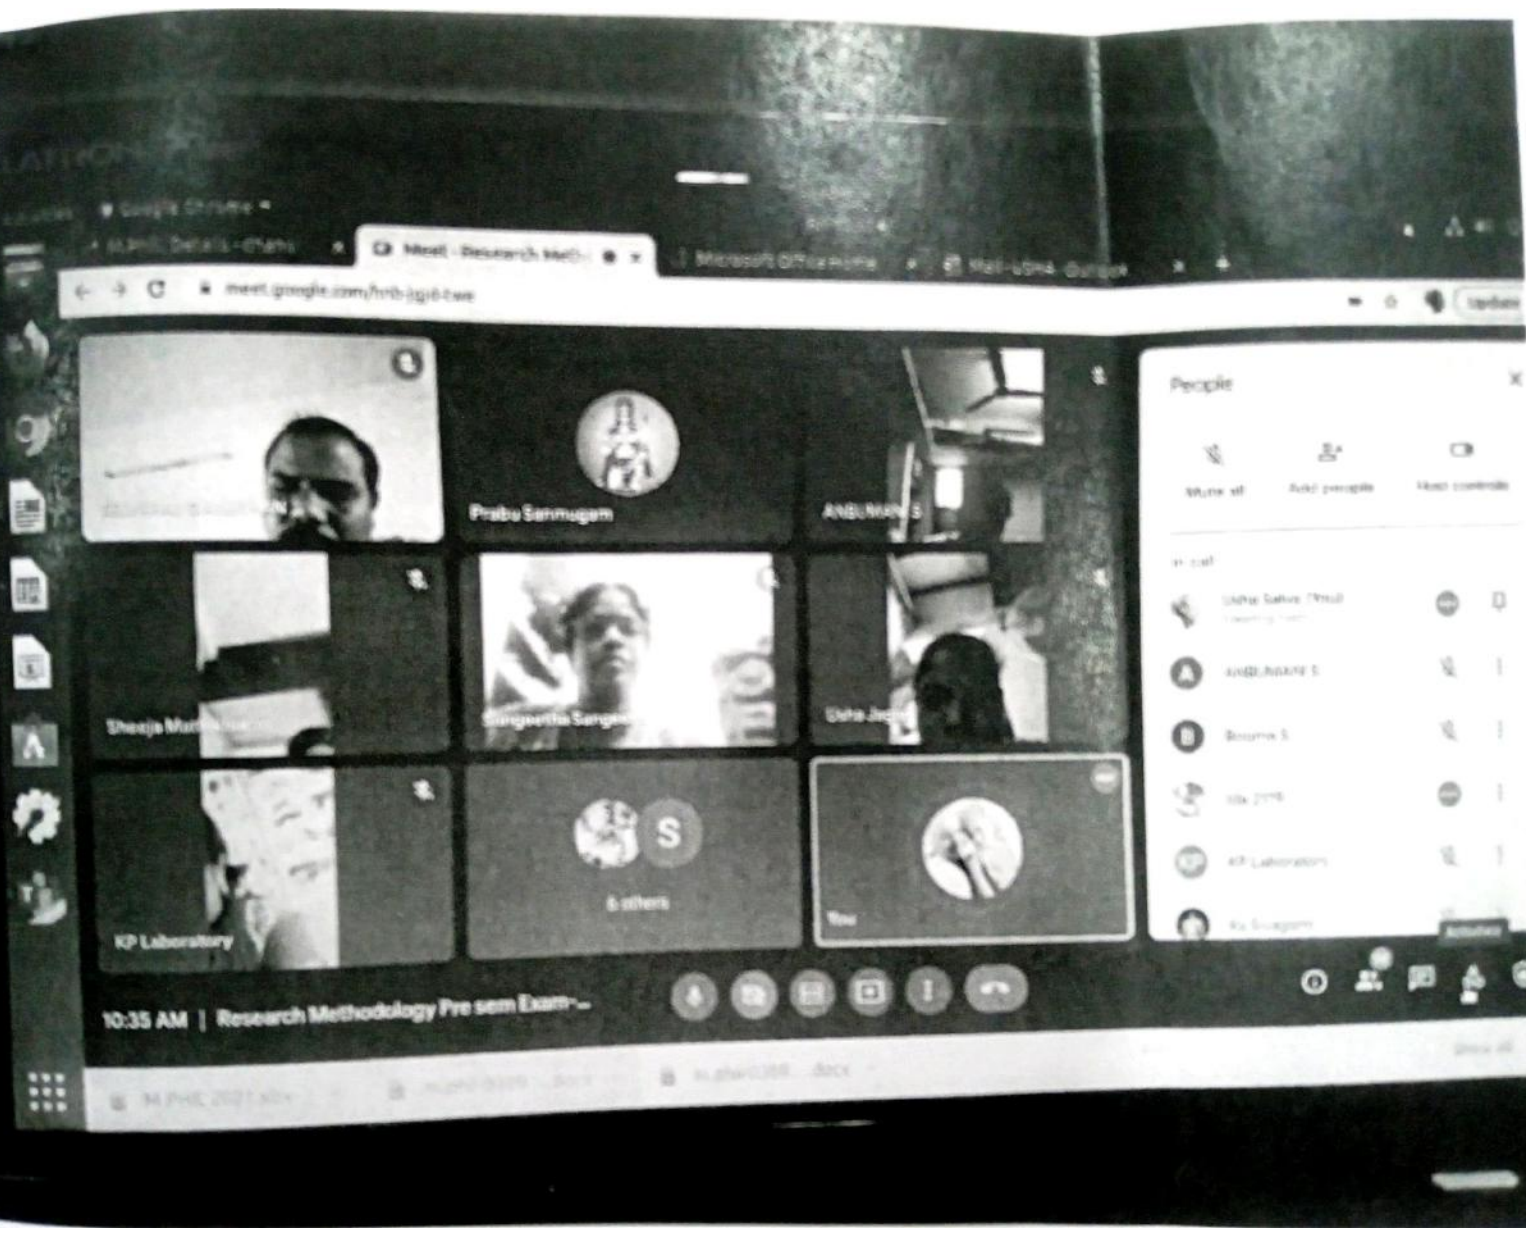

The alumni shared their experiences of working remotely and the new skills they have acquired during this period. They also discussed how the pandemic has reshaped industries and the job market, providing valuable insights to current students and recent graduates on navigating these uncertain times.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Head of the Alumni Association, who acknowledged the efforts of the organizing team and the active participation of the alumni. The online event was a resounding success, providing a platform for meaningful discussions and reaffirming the strength of the alumni network, even in challenging times.
